

Una Voce Ventura presents a Conference on Saturday September 10, 2011

at Thomas Aquinas College • 10000 Ojai Road, Santa Paula, California

Applying the Fruits of the Extraordinary Rite to Family Life

The manifest fruits of the Mass of Ages can provide a solid foundation for the spiritual life of your family. In this one-day conference, our two distinguished speakers will address what Catholic families can do and gain from a deeper appreciation of the traditional Latin Mass. Deep experience has shown that the reverence, solemnity, quiet and beauty of the Extraordinary Form of the Roman rite can produce rich spiritual growth and foster the formation of saints.

Featured Speakers:

Program

Father James Fryar, FSSP is a priest of the Fraternity of St. Peter, and chaplain of the Confraternity of St. Peter. He broadcasts a Mass weekly from his Parish in Sarasota, Florida on the internet.

He has conducted numerous pilgrimages and retreats.

Dr. Thomas Kaiser is a tutor at Thomas Aquinas College where he received his BA in liberal arts and subsequently his Ph.D. in Biology at the University of California at Los Angeles. His interest is in philosophy and theology, especially in the philosophy of nature.

Leo Raab, President of Una Voce Ventura, will moderate the program and introduce the speakers.
